

FRIDAY, OCTOBER

20, 2023

15H30 - 17H00

MCGILL SCHOOL OF RELIGIOUS STUDIES
BIRKS BLDG. 3520 UNIVERSITY MONTREAL, QC H3A 2A7

SCHOLARS IN DIALOGUE

Moderator
DANIEL CERE

Two renowned scholars discuss the complex and evolving place of faith, secularity and the public sphere and the challenges facing religious and political actors in the 21st century.

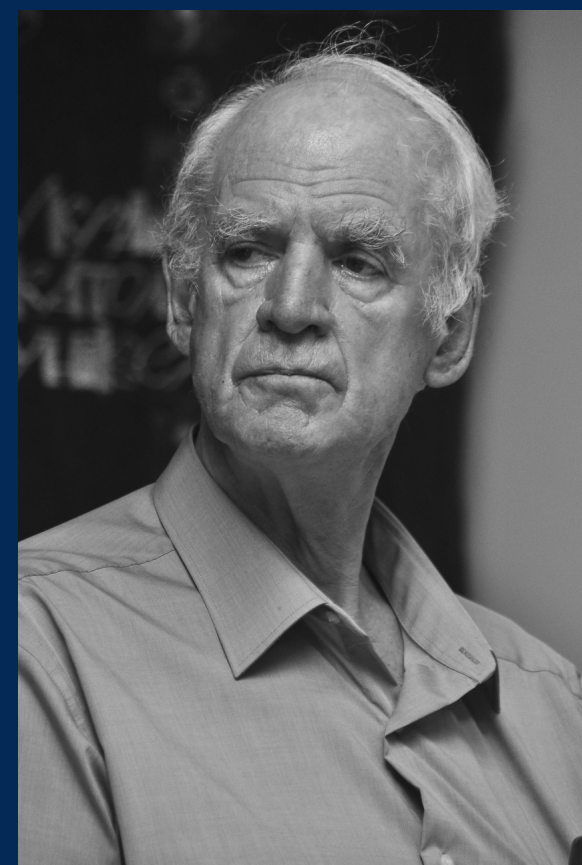

JOSE CASANOVA

Guest Speaker

One of the world's leading scholars in the sociology of religion, globalization and secularization. He is a senior fellow at the Berkley Center, Georgetown University.

Internationally acclaimed Canadian philosopher and professor emeritus at McGill University. His landmark book, A Secular Age, has reshaped discussions of modernity, religion and secularity.

CHARLES TAYLOR

Guest Speaker

McGill

School of Religious Studies

