The Centre intégré universitaire de santé et de services sociaux de l'Ouest-de-l'Île-de-Montréal and McGill's School of Communication Sciences and Disorders are looking to hire a Speech-Language Pathologist for the 2019 Spring/Summer Semester (end of April to end of May).

Responsibilities:

- Provide S-LP services to children 0-5 years of age, attending the CLSC Lac-St-Louis and CLSC Dorval-Lachine for 20 days (over 4-5 weeks)
- Determine, prioritize and manage caseload needs
- Screen and assess children for speech and language disorders
- Meet and consult with caregivers
- Supervise and mentor up to two Master's S-LP students

Requirements & experience:

- OOAQ Membership (Ordre des orthophonistes et audiologistes du Québec)
- At least 2 years of experience working as an S-LP

Assets:

- Experience working with pre-school-aged children

Salary and schedule:

- Spring/summer semester (end of April to end of May):
 - 20 days over 4-5 weeks (days of the week can be flexible)
 - 2 additional days to organize services
 - The S-LP will be compensated for a total of 22 days
- Compensation will be competitive with the top of the Public Sector Scale

Please send your CV and letter of interest to AEC11 at academicaffairs.aec11@mcgill.ca and the clinical education team at practicum.scsd@mcgill.ca by March 1, 2019.

McGill University is committed to equity in employment and diversity. It welcomes applications from Aboriginal persons, persons with disabilities, ethnic minorities, persons of minority sexual orientation or gender identity, visible minorities, women, and others who may contribute to diversification. All qualified applicants are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.
