Rationale		The calendar description has not been updated and thus, no longer accurately reflects the content of the course. The course title and description have been updated to reflect the best practices of the field. Removal of "Offered through Continuing Education or Summer Studies" as this is not the case. This course is offered by the Department of Educational & Counselling Psychology.
Responsible Instructor
Course Description	A review of career education and guidance programs that refer to the subject matter and related methods and techniques designed to foster the intellectual development of career awareness, career planning, career decision-making, and the necessary career-resilient employability skills for the school-to-work transition.	Career exploration for teachers, students and others across the lifespan. Creating inclusive and safe working environments, valuing diversity, career awareness, career growth and development, career decision-making, transferable skills, and school-to-work transitions for all.
