Descriptif de Cours

La violence relationnelle constitue un phénomène prédominant dans nos sociétés occidentales, qu'il s'agisse de violence domestique (couples, familles), de violence dans les relations de travail (employeur-employé), dans les relations amicales, dans le cadre des relations thérapeutiques, etc.

Il est d'une grande importance de pouvoir reconnaître cette violence dans les relations, et de pouvoir reconnaître aussi la violence dans l'absence d'agressivité dans les transactions interpersonnelles, ce que Reynaldo Perrone a appelé le « Syndrome de l'ange » (ESF, Éditeur, 2013).

NOTICES OF FUNDING/RESEARCH:

➤ THE H. NOEL FIELDHOUSE AWARD FOR DISTINGUISHED TEACHING

The H. Noel Fieldhouse Award for Distinguished Teaching is designed to recognize outstanding teaching in the Faculty of Arts, and is awarded each June at Convocation. All full-time academic staff in the Faculty of Arts are eligible for this award. Any student, alumnus, or member of the academic staff may submit a nomination.

Nomination forms and further information are available on the web at <http://www.mcgill.ca/arts/awardsgrants/facultyawards>.

The Arts Prizes and Awards Committee requires for each nominee:

- the completed nomination form
- at least one nominating letter from a current or former undergraduate student
- at least one nominating letter from a fellow faculty member

Thoughtful and detailed letters of nomination carry greater weight in the selection process than mere numbers of nominations. Letters should specify what constitutes “distinguished teaching” (in the nominator’s opinion), with supporting evidence taken from the nominee’s teaching. When referencing specific courses, please include the course number and the year.

Please submit nominations by email to sarah.kaderabek@mcgill.ca. For questions, please call Sarah Kaderabek at 514-398-4400, ext. 094822. DEADLINE: Thursday, March 10th, 2016.

➤ GRADUATE STUDENT TEACHING AWARDS - Call for Nominations

The Faculty of Arts Graduate Student Teaching Awards are designed to recognize outstanding teaching in the Faculty by graduate students, and will be awarded at the April Faculty meeting. All full-time Arts graduate students in good standing who are Teaching Assistants or Course Lecturers are eligible for this award, and any student or member of the academic staff may submit a nomination.

Three awards of $500 each will be made.

Thoughtful and detailed letters of nomination carry greater weight in the selection process than mere numbers of nominations.

Please address your nomination letter to the Committee on Graduate Studies and submit it by email to sarah.kaderabek@mcgill.ca or in person, Dawson Hall, Room 216. Call Sarah Kaderabek at 514-398-4400, ext. 094822 if you have any questions.

DEADLINE: Thursday, March 10th, 2016

JOB/VOLUNTEERING OPPORTUNITIES:

➤ SUMMER VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY FOR STUDENTS IN SOCIAL WORK

Camp Outlook is non-profit, volunteer run charity that provides young people with the opportunity to develop their self-worth, inner strength, and their capacity to succeed. We do this by taking campers, who would not otherwise have the opportunity to go camping, on 7-14 day canoe trips in Algonquin Provincial Park for no fixed cost. Youth go for free if they cannot pay. These trips provide youth with a supportive experience in the outdoors to grow. As staff, you will be provided with full training in June, lead three or more canoe trips in Algonquin Park and spend the rest of the summer preparing for trips and living with your co-staff in Kingston.

No previous tripping experience is necessary. We do require an unwavering commitment to providing our youth with a positive and supportive experience, even after a long hard day of paddling, and an open and supportive mindset towards other staff.

The 2016 summer season runs from the last week of May to the end of August. We provide room, board and full training including certifications in Bronze Medallion, Bronze Cross and Wilderness First Aid. We value building a diverse team, people from all backgrounds, experiences and age and are encouraged to apply. Visit www.campoutlook.ca for applications. Email summer@campoutlook.ca for more information or questions.

Deadline to apply: midnight, February 26th, 2016.

Outlook is as rewarding as it is challenging. You will never forget your summer with Outlook, the campers, the staff, or the park.

➤ INTERNATIONAL ABROAD/VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES IN SANTIAGO, CHILE

VE Global, a non-profit volunteer organization providing free volunteer abroad opportunities in Santiago, Chile is seeking volunteers. VE Global fosters the development of children at social risk in Santiago de Chile by recruiting and training volunteers to do volunteer work in the areas of literacy, arts, health and recreation, and English.

We receive our volunteers in groups that start every year in January, May and September. Our next volunteer classes start in May and September of this year, and we are already working to find some great volunteers!

We think that some of your students would be interested in our programs for volunteers abroad. We have some new volunteer informational brochures and flyers that we hope will help your students learn more about our volunteer opportunities.

We wanted to make these outreach files available in a couple of different ways for you, depending on what's easiest for your organization: Access the files via Dropbox here, or Download on our VE Global website here.

For more information about VE Global, please contact Charlotte.
