ELECTIVE COURSES

$\Rightarrow$ Elective courses are 200+ level
The only exceptions to taking 200+ level courses as electives are 100-level courses from:

- Mathematics & Science
- Approved Freshman courses available on the Arts OASIS website
- Language courses, where the appropriate level is determined by a placement test administered by the department offering the course

$\Rightarrow$ Electives are Not SWRK courses; they are courses taken for credit from any academic

 Faculty and any department.Note: Courses offered through the School of Continuing Studies do not count towards an Arts degree. However, there are some exceptions. School of Continuing Studies courses with subject numbers that do not start with a C (exception CHEM and certain McGill Writing Centre courses that begin with CEAP or CESL - see the eCalendar) are accepted for credit towards your Arts degree. Acceptable Continuing Studies courses for credit as an elective include:

- CEAP 250 Research Essay & Rhetoric
- CESL 300 ESL: Academic English 2
- CESL 400 ESL: Essay & Critical Thinking
- CESL 500 ESL: Research Essay and Rhetoric
- As well as CCOM 200: Introduction to Creative Writing, offered by McGill Writing Centre

Note for ALL Non-SWRK Complementary and Elective courses:

Students must respect any restrictions or prerequisites listed in the university calendar. If instructor permission is required, students must follow up with the specific instructor in the particular department and go through their administrative office to get an override to register. Permission must be obtained prior to course registration.

[^0]:    *IDFC 500 Indigenous Field Studies can be counted as a complementary non-SWRK course OR a complementary SWRK course.
