HOW MUCH WILL IT COST?
Tuition and fees along with accommodation costs should be your first stops. Take a detour to these sites* to create a budget.
Don’t forget about conferences and /or field trips as well as summer fees. Try to make your plan as comprehensive as possible.

* bit.ly/ssaocost
bit.ly/mcgillhousing

ARE THERE FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES?
To cover the cost of attendance, student should know where to find core funding.
Graduate funding is handled at the academic department level.
Canadian & US students with/without department funding could also look at government student financial assistance as a primary source of funding.
Take an alternative route to these web pages as you plot out your funding plan:

mcgill.ca/gps/funding
bit.ly/mcgillgovfund
bit.ly/otherfunding

HOW CAN I MAKE EVERY DOLLAR COUNT?
Make a spending plan for 12 months if you are doing
- a thesis
- a non-thesis program that requires summer registration and a full credit load of 12 or more.
Otherwise, calculate 8 months of expenses.
We have tips and tricks to shop smart, eat for less and to create sound spending habits. Wise planning means all your needs and some of your wants can be covered!

bit.ly/SSAOfinances for videos mcgill.ca/studentaid/finances for the frugal scholar money management toolkit

NEED MORE HELP?
If you have reached the end of the road and can’t make ends meet, maybe McGill Scholarships and Student Aid Office can help. We administer a work study program as well as in-course financial aid, based on financial need.
Drop by, call, or email. Follow us on social media too!

Scholarships and Student Aid Office
Brown Student Services Building
3600 McTavish, Suite 3200
Montreal. Quebec H3AOG3

514 398-6013
@ student.aid@mcgill.ca
@McGillAid