

REPORT TO SENATE OF
THE COMMITTEE ON STUDENT DISCIPLINE
ANNUAL REPORT 2011-2012

Submitted by Dr. Linda Jacobs Starkey, Interim Dean of Students

The Committee on Student Discipline (CSD) is a tribunal rather than a policy committee; it functions when convened to consider disciplinary cases. The policies administered by CSD are normally brought to Senate, after appropriate consultations, by the Dean of Students. When CSD is not in session, the business of the Committee is conducted by the Office of the Dean of Students. The Dean and Associate Dean of Students are not themselves Disciplinary Officers (DOs), but are fully engaged in ensuring that the processes for the Code of Student Conduct and Disciplinary Procedures as defined in the Handbook on Student Rights and Responsibilities (<http://www.mcgill.ca/secretariat/policies/students/handbook-student-rights-and-responsibilitiesle-recueil-des-droits-et-obligations-d>) are respected.

This annual report includes all discipline cases formally addressed last year at McGill University. CSD hearings comprise less than 1% of this total. During the 12-month period from 1 September 2011 to 31 August 2012, 416 new alleged violations of the Code of Student Conduct and Disciplinary Procedures involving 250 students, were reported to the Office of the Dean of Students. Including 8 of the 13 cases (comprising 9 allegations) carried forward from 2010-2011, 403 allegations were adjudicated by the Disciplinary Officers this year. Ten cases (comprising 24 allegations) were heard by the Committee on Student Discipline. One hearing is pending and will be included in the 2012-13 annual report. Cases still in progress generally result from the non-availability of the students after spring and summer exam sessions or due to off-campus semesters.

DETAILS FOR 2011-2012

ACADEMIC OFFENCES

For the range of Articles in the Code addressing academic offences, including various combinations, please refer to Appendix B.

NON-ACADEMIC OFFENCES

For the range of Articles in the Code addressing non-academic offences, including various combinations, please refer to Appendix C. Two cases from Athletics and Recreation, one case from Libraries, and 92 cases from Residences and Student Housing are included in the table of non-academic offences.

CASES REFERRED TO THE COMMITTEE ON STUDENT DISCIPLINE

CSD meets when a case is referred by the Disciplinary Officer or when a full hearing is requested by the student. Ten CSD Hearings took place in 2011-2012. One hearing is pending. The Articles addressed at CSD are found in Appendix D. The undergraduate and graduate student breakdown is not provided in order to protect the confidentiality of outcomes.

EXCLUSION FROM CAMPUS AND/OR RESIDENCES & STUDENT HOUSING

Article 21 of the Code provides conditions for exclusion of a student from an area or from the University for reasons of maintaining good order or for the safety of others. In 2011-2012, six students were excluded for periods of varying duration.

DISCIPLINARY CLEARANCES

The Office of the Dean of Students keeps the University's official records related to student discipline. Any request for a disciplinary status report (disciplinary clearance) must come from the student to the Dean of Students. In 2011-2012, 230 disciplinary clearance letters were prepared.

COMMENTS BY THE INTERIM DEAN OF STUDENTS

In 2011-2012, the total number of allegations was slightly higher (427 vs. 408 in 2010-2011), with a 48% increase in non-academic offence allegations (286 vs. 193 allegations). Exonerations accounted for 28% of non-academic offence decisions. This increase can be attributed to improved reporting of e-mail harassment or inappropriate use of McGill posting sites; the growing number of residence spaces; and the campus atmosphere last year. The "number of cases" refers to individual students; more than one Article of the Code may be cited in some cases. A decision is made for each Article cited. Some students participated in the discipline process on more than one occasion.

The proportion of cases involving plagiarism was similar to 2011-2012, however total academic offence allegations decreased (141 in 2011-2012 versus 215 in 2010-2011). Plagiarism allegations for graduate students decreased from 31 to 14 cases. The proportion of cases involving cheating was similar to previous years.

CONCLUSION AND THANKS

Service as a Disciplinary Officer and as a CSD member (Appendix E) demands an important investment of time by the staff and students appointed to these positions, and by support staff. Thanks to all for their attention to detail and to approved procedures, and for the respectful environment maintained in all disciplinary matters.
