

Internship Opportunity with The McGill Office of Sustainability Winter 2017

POSITION

Communications Intern

CONTEXT

The mission of the MOOS ( moose) is to create a culture of sustainability at McGill. MOOS aims to identify, connect, and enhance efforts to incorporate principles of sustainability (ecological, social, and economic) into research, education, connectivity, operations, and governance & administration at McGill. We provide the institutional memory and knowledge, the network of partnerships, the framework for sustainability at McGill (Vision 2020), and the seed funding (Sustainability Projects Fund) to facilitate the sustainability efforts of students, faculty, and staff.

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT

- An experiential learning experience
- A passionate and caring team work environment
- Setting personal and professional goals to work toward and reflect upon
- Being able to be first and foremost a student
- Very little mindless busy work
- Co-designing your work plan to include your own interests

DUTIES

- Generate written content for sustainability (stories, web text, events, newsletter)
- Manage all Office of Sustainability social media (Facebook, Twitter, Instagram)
- Carry out a communications strategy to engage students, faculty and staff in sustainability efforts
- Assist in promoting activities of the Office of Sustainability and engaging the McGill community in them
- Work with Communications Officer, Web Intern and Multimedia Intern to advance sustainability communications goals
- Others, as they may arise

QUALIFICATIONS

- Excellent written communication, research, and organizational skills
- Ability to reliably produce high-quality work, on time, with limited supervision
- Ability to keep track of, prioritize, and complete multiple tasks
- Good team player and people skills
- Interest in sustainability or social justice issues
- Desire to learn
- Proficiency in the use of Microsoft Office.
- Familiarity with social media tools and platforms (Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Hootsuite, MailChimp, WordPress, etc.)
- Students from ALL FACULTIES are welcome to apply

CONSIDERED A PLUS:

- Fluency in French (ability to write and translate content)
- Graphic design and photo editing experience

- Connection with other student sustainability groups on campus

HOURS: 10 hours a week, from March 2017 through August 2017, with the potential to extend.

REMUNERATION: $15.00 per hour + 4% vacation pay and compensation for legal holidays.

SUPERVISOR: Toby Davine, Communications Officer

DEADLINE TO APPLY: February 22, 2016 by 5:00 PM

HOW TO APPLY: Please email your C.V. and cover letter to toby.davine@mcgill.ca in Word or PDF format entitled firstname_lastname_CV and firstname_lastname_cover letter with subject line: Website Communications Associate.

FOR MORE INFORMATION: email Toby Davine. See also: our website, blog, facebook, and twitter.

The McGill Office of Sustainability (MOOS) values the contributions that individuals who identify as members of marginalized communities bring to our organization, and encourages women, Indigenous people, people of colour, people identifying as LGBTTTQI (lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgendered, two-spirited, queer, intersex), members of ethnic minorities, immigrants and people with disabilities to apply. Please indicate if you consider yourself to be a member of one of these groups and would like to be considered as such for the purpose of this hiring process.