McGill University is on land which has long served as a site of meeting and exchange amongst Indigenous peoples, including the Haudenosaunee and Anishinabeg nations. We acknowledge and thank the diverse Indigenous peoples whose presence marks this territory on which peoples of the world now gather.

For over 200 years, McGillians have made history, blazing new trails in virtually every field.

McGill attracts some of the brightest minds from across Quebec and around the world. Our students win more national and international awards on average than their peers at any other Canadian university.

This success stems from a simple philosophy: we believe that ideas are made to be challenged. At McGill, we inspire each other to dream big, to try our best, and to achieve more than we ever thought possible.
Discover Montreal

Affordable, multilingual, creative and bursting with culture

Montreal’s diverse, youthful vibe shines through in its unique and colourful neighbourhoods. With amazing restaurants, nightlife, and a lively arts and music scene, there’s always something new to explore – even if you’re a Montrealer. Students across Quebec choose to study in Montreal for an international experience close to home.

Montreal offers an incredible experience year-round

Our Downtown Campus is steps away from cafés, snack bars, galleries, museums, and popular neighbourhoods such as the Old Port, China Town, and Le Plateau-Mont-Royal. You can visit city parks in the spring, or attend one of our 100+ music and cultural festivals in the summer. Hike through the stunning Mont Royal Park in the fall, or go ice skating on McGill's lower field in the winter.

A city filled with opportunity

Montreal is a hub for creativity and innovation, with talented minds coming from all over the world to join booming industries. No matter what you’re interested in, the possibilities to explore and build a successful career are endless.

Join a diverse, multilingual community

Meet students from across Quebec and around the world

One thing students love about McGill is the diversity of experiences and perspectives you can find on campus. 30% of McGill students are international, coming from over 150 countries in the world.

You’ll hear many languages spoken on campus, including French. Many students come from the Quebec Francophone system, and other French-speaking countries worldwide.

Submit work in English or French

Whether you’re an anglophone, allophone or native French speaker, you can submit work at McGill in the language you are most comfortable in.

Enhance your language skills

Courses, workshops and tutorial services are available at McGill for French–and English–language learners. Level up your skills and get ready to stand out to employers.

Downtown Campus

Modern buildings, historic architecture and expansive green spaces are nestled in the heart of Montreal’s main shopping district. Our Downtown Campus is a stunning place to explore – with cafés, world-class restaurants and the city’s best nightlife just steps away.

“Something clicked on the campus tour, because everyone at McGill is so unique in the way that they carry themselves and the things that they do, and what they’re interested in. It really shows when you’re on campus, which I love. I had no idea that by the time I would get here, it would be so transformative.”

Macdonald Campus

Just 40 minutes from the Downtown Campus, the stunning Macdonald Campus sits on 1,600 acres of waterfront property. “Mac” mixes high-tech and nature, with computerized greenhouses and culinary laboratories sitting next to bike trails and Canada’s largest arboretum. A free shuttle bus connects Mac to Downtown.

Outaouais Campus

Students interested in becoming physicians can complete their four-year undergraduate medical education in French at Campus Outaouais in Gatineau, Quebec. Offering a tight-knit community and small cohort, the campus sits within a network of affiliated medical facilities.

/40 Prix du Quebec winners
/60 Ordre Nationale du Quebec members
Made by following inspiration

Frédéric Aubé, Honours Economics & Finance (BA), Class of 2020

In his second year at McGill, Frédéric Aubé found a problem that held potential. Inspired by moving day in Montreal with its tight hallways and steep stairways, he thought — there must be a better way to move furniture. That sparked the idea for Cozey, Canada’s first easy-to-assemble “sofa in a box” company, which he launched in his last semester at McGill. Exchanging ideas with smart students and approachable professors gave him the confidence to build and pursue his business plan. Now with 40+ employees and over $12 million invested, Cozey is moving into the US market and setting up a parallel brand, Nook, based in Frédéric’s home province of Quebec.

How to apply in 7 easy steps

Know your deadlines
Mark your calendar with important dates regarding your application.

Decide what to study
Use our program finder tool to explore over 300 undergraduate programs and find your best match.

Make sure you’re eligible
Admission to most programs is based on grades only. Take time to explore:
- How your academic record is reviewed
- The grades that gained entrance to your program in previous years
- The prerequisites for your program
- The application protocol for Indigenous applicants

Get ready to apply
Complete each step of the pre-application to-do list, including:
- Understand the deadlines that apply to you
- Prepare your academic documents
- Identify supporting documents you’ll need to provide

Submit your application
Review our tips on how to apply and see what the application fees will be. Remember that you can apply to two programs. Apply by March 1.

Apply for an entrance scholarship or bursary
You’re automatically considered for a one-year, non-renewable entrance scholarship of $3,000 when you submit your application. A separate submission is required for a major, renewable scholarship, due one week after the program application deadline. Be sure to explore other sources of funding including government aid, loans, bursaries, and external awards.

Submit documents and keep in touch
You can track your application online and learn which supporting documents you need to upload. Check out our application guide to explore:
- How to follow your applications status
- Supporting documents you may need to prepare
- How to submit supporting documents
