Paul Bettany stars as the charismatic Charles Darwin, a brilliant scientist and devoted father. Inspired by Annie, his treasured daughter, Darwin writes On the Origin of Species and finds himself not only pitted against society’s beliefs, but against his wife Emma. Yet the decision to publish his manuscript rests in Emma’s hands. Jennifer Connelly plays Emma, a deeply religious and passionate woman faced with a terrible choice: her faith or the man she loves.

---

Mindfulness-Based Stress Reduction

Led by PATRICIA DOBKIN, Ph.D.

514-398-2298; angelica.todireanu@mcgill.ca

---

Time:
October 15—December 3, 2020
Thursdays, 4:00—6:00 pm

Retreat Day: Saturday, November 21, 2020;
10:00 am- 3:00 pm

---

Venue:
The program will be delivered entirely online due to the pandemic.

---

Cost:

$500.00

You will get a receipt that may be honored by an insurance company, as Dr. Patricia Dobkin is a clinical psychologist and member of OPQ.