Montreal: a stunning city

Montreal is an ideal place to live while pursuing graduate studies. It’s an affordable, safe, multi-cultural, cosmopolitan city located east of Toronto, and north of New York City.

Montreal sparkles with culture, from Cirque du Soleil to the International Jazz Festival and the Just forLaughs comedy festival to the vibrant harmony of live bands and spirited patio conversations. The city’s diverse architecture juxtaposes elegant heritage buildings with some of North America’s most unique and exciting structures.

Campus life at McGill

McGill boasts two gorgeous, geographically distinct campuses.

The downtown campus lies between the lush green slopes of Mount Royal and the heart of Montreal’s vibrant downtown core. With more than 70 buildings, including state-of-the-art labs and user-friendly libraries, it offers ample space for studying and relaxation.

Macdonald Campus is situated in Sainte-Anne-de-Bellevue on the western tip of the island of Montreal, about 40 kilometres (25 miles) west of the downtown campus. Set on the banks of the beautiful St. Lawrence River and away from the bustle of downtown, Macdonald campus is home to the Faculty of Agricultural and Environmental Sciences, and the School of Dietetics and Human Nutrition.
